She can be a bit too direct for some people, and at first this was a quality of her personality that I was put off by at first.à ÂWhen you get to know her a bit better though, you come to understand that she is not being aggressive or insulting. She just doesn¢ÃÂÂt believe in beating around the bush. If she thinks you¢ÃÂÂre an idiot, she¢ÃÂÂl tell you to your face. As for why I like her, well, as I said she does have a very sarcastic sense of humour which can be a bit dark at times. It¢ÃÂÂs something we have in common. The final race, however, had to be directed by the teachers were all concerned about the teachers were all concerned about the teachers were all aligned on the track and ready to run. The headword spoiled the whistle and all were. It was here that it became really intense, but exciting at the same time. So, just as they were about to end, Mr. Stevens, who was in the first place, stumbled over his attacker and fell into the cha. Our teacher, Mr. Williams won the race! I love to run, it is definitely my favorite hobby. I think when I run in the morning, I feel it fresh and alive. This also wakes me up and prepares me for the next day. Running is a type of aerial exercise and helps improve the body. There is a good number of benefits with this specific exercise. For example, running helps to build internal moods and develops its breath. It also burns calories. Running can also help you lose weight. If you have the kind of work where you are sitting all day, you are not burning many calories. If people continue to do this, they increase their risk of heart and pulmonary problems. Having any kind of exercise will help them in shape, but I prefer to run. Generally, I run through the lumpini park in Bangkok, which is near my apartment. The park contains an ancient chinand -style tower, ornamental lakes, playgrounds and a pillbliced library. The most significant thing for me, however, is obviously the running in the morning in the morning is the most convenient, because it is usually colder and I can watch the sunrise. I would have to apply these criteria to a first project, get customers it is my dream job because I like to look before and after a garden and see the joy in the face of a client when I was 20 years old, so little over 5 years. I thought it was boring and ineffective. to be completely frank with you, he was a lazy teacher. all he did was copy words, facts and figures from our course book to the board and make us write what he wrote. there was no real teaching involved u learning for this subject. He then told us we had to memorize all the information if we didn't want to receive a low note for the matter. It was a joke! when I was twenty-six years old, I watched a film about Chinese history. the film is about the time when genghis khan conquered the north of china for over a thousand years. Is the pollution of rivers, crafts and channels in the city. I believe it is caused by the water. The pollution of our waterways has been brought on by many years of abuse and a lack of respect. At one stage, environmental scientists had done research on the waterways surrounding my city and said that were biologically dead, which means there are no fish or any other life, for that matter. A Boats could not travel up and down the canals because there was so much floating plastic and other types of rubbish that were clogging them up. The toxic waste in the rivers as there was a high chance to get an infection. In the late 80¢ÂÂÂs, the government started to take action and began an enormous clean-up of the city¢ÅÄÄs waterways. They started to give out heavy fines to industries polluting the rivers. Police were also given the power to charge people if they were seen littering on the streets. You must say: who is this person that language (s) they know what he / she uses this language (or, these wools) to and explain why you think they (he / she) have learned well I will talk about A person I know that speaks English as a second dowant fluently. This person is my boss. Due to the nature of her work, she has to travel a lot and therefore needs to use English regularly. The thing is that our company has a large international customer base, and it has been months when it has to travel twice a week to different parts of Europe and the SIA to prepare for customer meetings or to provide Training for new employees. You must say: when you said that language you used and say how you felt about it I will talk about the first time I had to talk to someone in a foreign bone. Firstly, I have to mention that I have learned English for many years, but I have not had a lot of chances of speaking in English in my home paãs, let alone communicate with native English speakers. As much as me arap arap iesu o euq zev ariemirp a the purposes were at Easter in 2018. At that time, I was going out with my friends, talking about what our plans were for the Easter vacation, when suddenly a foreigner came to me. She started asking me questions for instructions for the nearby national museum. Honestly, she had such a strong accent that I couldn't understand anything she was saying. I had to ask him to slow down and repeat himself several times before I could give him the information he needed. So I ran it to the museum. To be completely honest, my English-speaking skills were not the best. I had to use a lot of body language and gestures to make sure she had all the information she needed. Fortunately, she could accept what I said. She then thanked me for helping her before going to the museum. This moment helped me realize how important English is in our lives, even if we don't live in an English-speaking country. English is spoken all over the world, and if we want to stay connected to people in other countries, we have to learn and practice using it. I think I need to sculpt my English skills so that I can communicate with foreigners no matter what the topic of the conversation is. Do you think English will be spoken by everyone in the future? - Yes. English has been the lingua franca of international business and other countries for so long now that I mean is that the idea of everyone who speaks English is going to happen. If you are not sure how to start, you can use initial phrases like: "I'll talk about...", "I would like to talk to you about...", "I'll give you a description of..." or reshaping the first statement as the above (5, Example ii).6. going to work, the supermarket, and visiting friends and family. These are all a short distance away from my house which I can get to without driving a car.Life is a lot better now that I have a bike. For one thing, I am able to save money. I spend less money on car repairs because I don¢ÃÂÂt use it that much anymore.à ÂRiding a bike is also a form of exercise which gives your heart and lungs a good workout. This, of course, potentially protects me from diseases like high blood pressure, arthritis, heart disease and severe weight gain. These are also some of the main reasons I think bikes will be around for a few more years to come. Do you think all technology is beneficial to health?Well, I think technology in My neighbour told me some important things about eating times, what type of games her daughter enjoyed, but I didn¢ÃÂÂt really listen to what she said. Anyway, in the morning, things were going well. We played some games and we had a very tasty breakfast. After breakfast, I was so exhausted I wanted to take a nap, but the girl had asked me to continue playing games with her. After figuring out that I didn¢ÃÂÂt want to play anymore, she immediately broke down into tears. I was so tired, and I didn¢ÃÂÂt know what I could do to help calm her daughter down. Working days tend to be shorter, and since the country is very small and is surrounded by the Pacific Oceans on all borders, it is very easy to reach the beach to surf for two hours or more. They would then work around 10:00 and end at 4:00, go home and eat, then go back to the beach to relax. You think it's a culture that most people would like! don't think it's for everyone because it's a pretty relaxed culture and I'm aware that some people, especially in the They prefer to do things very quickly. Example iDesCrus an important day you celebrate in your pass. You must say: What day is you how you celebrate this day because this day celebrates? And as this is different from other celebrations in Chinese culture, we celebrate something called Lunar New Year. The most important thing is this holiday and what it involves. As we, say fifty years, the economy of China was mainly Agraacola. Therefore, agriculture has played and, to some extent, still plays a significant role in Chinese culture. As a result, people here are used to use the lunar calendar. Which, to the opposite of the Western calendar, which tells the days we rotate around the sun, we count the days according to the moon movement. For the Chinese, the first day of the lunar calendar is very important. It is not a new lunar cycle, but it is also the moment when Famãias are reached and make the resolutions of the New Year. Nowadays, people often visit their immediate family members and relatives. We all met for a huge party and wished each other a happy and close New Year. Adults give their children or their older relatives red envelopes with money inside. This is a tradition, which ensures that we all live so far from each other, and we are all very busy with our own lives that we don't have a chance to see ovoN ovoN on a ranul. The perfect opportunity for this. S sometimes in the hope of an excellent very linear that will come to all the Fumalia. This day every year, I spend most of my time at home, helping my mothers and other relatives prepare food, or I will have long conversations with my sister and sister. This is a good opportunity to meet. The problem is that we don't have a chance to see ovoN ovoN on a ranul. The perfect opportunity for this. S sometimes late, let's go to the temple to pray for good things that come, but not all the Chinese do that. For me, it is important that each time has its own culture. As we celebrate the new lunar year, we are remembering this traditions within a culture is not forgotten? For me, without culture it is very difficult to identify with the world. The traditions give me a sense of place, belonging and ligation with my Famalia and my ancestors. These people buy most of whom I am like a person. It is not important that I can be away from Famalia, these traditions and our culture always meet. If you are struggling to understand where you are making mistakes in your speech, a very effective way to solve this is to record yourself by practicing your part 2 on your cell phone. This is a good way to listen back to yourself, so you can check for common mistakes in your grade and pronounce. 11. Travelexample Idesver an interesting trip you were in. You must say: Where did you go? As you have traveled with whom you were and say how it affected your life in the one of my favorite trips is the one I made in February the amester. It was a last -minute reserve, as I wanted to do something spontaneous with my partner. I also love nothing more than going on adventures without much thought. You know, there is no other proposal to walk the streets, look at new and exciting places and allow the trip to happen. It was exactly what happened on my trip to amester.
