First printed by the King's Printer Robert Barker, this was the Great Bible commissioned in the reign of King Henry VIII, and the second was the Bishops' Bible of 1568. In January 1604, King James I convened the Hampton Court Conference where a new English version was conceived in response to the perceived problems of the earlier translations as detected by the Puritans, a faction within the Church of England. James gave the translators instructions intended to guarantee that the new version would conform to the ecclesiology and reflect the episcopal structure of the Church of England and its belief in an ordained clergy. The translation was done by 47 scholars, all of whom were members of the Church of England. In common with most other translations of the period, the New Testament was translated from Greek, the Old Testament was translated from Hebrew text, while the Apocrypha were translated from the Greek and Latin. In the Book of Common Prayer (1662), the text of the Authorized Version replaced the text of the Authorized Version was effectively unchallenged as the English translation used in Anglican and Protestant churches. Over the course of the 18th century, the Authorized Version supplanted the Latin Vulgate as the standard version of scripture for English speaking scholars. Today, the most used edition of the King James Bible, and often identified as plainly the King James Version, especially in the United States, closely follows the standard text of 1769, edited by Benjamin Blayney at Oxford. Small bug fixes and performance improvements Adapted for iOS 13 Blessings can come through the Lord, even when your down and at the lowest point in life pretty much rock bottom in a sense and just when you think there is no hope or no way up or out. That's when the goodness of our God steps in arms open wide and to reach down from the heavens above with greatness and love and his mercy is ever so powerful and kind. Jesus Christ gave his life for the world so that you and I could live a sin free life. I know God loves me even when I don't think he does and just when you think he isn't listening that's when your prayers can get answered, dreams can come true, all help comes from the lord. And rest assure that our Savior Jesus Christ is coming back to this earth to gather all his children and who are saved and soon that great white throne judgement day will be upon us and if you are not saved or your heart is not right with the Lord Jesus Christ. All I can say is believe and wait and see. God Bless and God loves you! The KJV of the Bible is the best thing ever happened to me. I had given up all hope for everything. I cared about no one; not even myself. I didn't want to mix or be around Anyone or anything. I felt sorry for myself and blamed others for my condition; for which I In my heart, I knew it wasn't true. Then, oneDay someone left me a gift outside my door; I t was the KJV of the Bible. I'd never read Any Bible before in my life. I kept picking it Up and laying it down for exactly 3-Days. Then, I heard a little voice speak to me and Say "Open it and Read it will give you great Known ledge and Understanding "! I followed directions of the Bible for hours. I was hooked. I did start in Geniuses. I was capture bated and mesmerized by this KJV of the Bible. I couldn't believe all The biblical things I have been missing! Still, I couldn't put this Bible down and the hour was growing very late in the evening near midnight! I eventually continued to read my Bible Faithfully Until I finished. This was the greatest thing I had ever done for me in my life! I will do this again anytime! Vivian Grayden This online bible has been a big help because I've been questioning my faith or my lack of after seeing a friend of mine who was a pastor out in Tucson Arizona who was dying of cancer document his journey and experience and his unwavering faith in Jesus Christ and how he was in total piece with everything! It was as if he was traveling to Europe and he was excited to be beginning a new chapter in his life. Jim and I haven't been friends since H.S., he was my age which is in my mid 50's. We reconnected last fall when I was in the hospital for a life saving surgery on my right leg and during that time while I was in the hospital I was looking for old friendships on FB and Jim and I connected! Now more than ever I'm aware of my lack of faith and I find this Bible a big help! Thanks!
